LA PRODUCTION LA PLUS AMBITIEUSE JAMAIS RÉALISÉE PAR PRIVATE, X-GIRLS EST L'ADAPTATION EN CHAIR ET EN OSE DE FA-MEUX COMIC BOOK !

Dans un monde fait de corruption, deux groupes de héros mutants s'affrontent, la Fraternité et les X-Girls. La Fraternité est conduite par Antoan, un mutant démoniaque plus connu sous le nom de GRAVITY, qui possède le pouvoir d'altérer les champs magnétiques. Dans son camp, les bandits répondent aux nom de PLUG, un créateur de gadgets hi-tech, de SCREAMER qui a des cordes vocales si affinées qu'un de ses cris est capable d'exploser les tympans de ses victimes et de TOWER un mutant démesuré, exceptionnellement fort et pratiquement invincible. Mais cette équipe infernale serait incomplète sans la mutante la plus sexy, THE KID, qui possède le pouvoir de télékinésie.

Les X-Girls, quant à elles sont conduites par THE PROFESSOR, qui entraîne nos mutantes à perfectionner leurs pouvoirs et à n'utiliser la force que pour le bien. Antoan est son ennemi juré, mais en mobilisant les forces de ses belles élèves, il peut s'assurer de freiner l'avancée de la Fraternité dans leur course pour la destruction de la planète !

Mise en scène par la nouvelle équipe de production MILK, déjà responsable de la supervision des effets spéciaux sur la trilogie Porn Wars, le film est d'hors et déjà considéré comme un must d'après les personnages originaux du comic-strip créé

Creada por el nuevo equipo de producción, MILK, que también se encargó de los efectos especiales de Porn Wars, el resultado es una verdadera obra de arte basada en el cómic de superhéroes, pero con las peculiaridades de Private, que ha creado a sus propias X-GIRLS:

The gentle sea breezes caressed my trembling body as I did my best to keep my feet, standing on the deck of the yacht, rocking in the light yet constant swell. With one hand I held a glass of champagne while the other gripped the burnished brass rail and my cock felt like it was ready to burst as Mandy sucked on it for all she was worth. Michel had laid anchor just off the small island of La Tradelière, east of Sainte Marguerite, opposite the coast of Cannes, and was up on the bridge shagging Chrissie, who was one hell of a babe. Being a redhead she was inevitably covered in freckles, the result of too many hours in the Mediterranean, her skin like a ma, just waiting to be explored. The time had come to get down to it; I'd spent far too much time turning it over in my head. "Oh Mandy, baby, suck on that, all the way in now... Oh yeah, you can do it..." I whispered watching the slag taking it all the way in. All that time playing hard to get, appearance can be so misleading, Jeez! What a cocksucking little beauty she turned out to be. I could tell she'd been around, a born slut if ever I fucked one. With her hands gripping my cheeks she'd managed to insert her index finger deep inside my asshole, stimulating my prostate. Mandy was a real woman, must have been thirty but she sure wore it well. A brunette, small tits but crowned with enormous cherry-like nipples; slender hips and ass, almost boyish, the body of a gymnast... What else can I say... Oh yeah, maybe I should explain just why I'd decided to fuck the bitch until I'd brought tears to her eyes, then fuck her some more until I had her begging for mercy.

The whole thing started three weeks earlier, in July, in Cannes, with nature blooming in every nook and cranny of that artificial paradise. Michel and I, both natives of the town, had signed up for a scuba diving course, which we were just about to finish. Apart from that my only occupation was looking after my friend François' yacht, while he was on holiday in Sweden with his latest acquisition - that is girlfriend- a stunning blond called Francine, the kind of babe that gives you a hard on at a distance of 100 metres. I'd just broken up with my girlfriend the previous month and, basically, I was pretty pissed off with her in particular and the female race in general. Whatever... Now where was I? - That's right, Michel, who else, had his eye on a couple of English girls, both staying at the Sun Riviera - which meant they weren't short of a bob or two! Now, as luck would have it they were also on the same scuba course, but in a different group. Michel, a guy with the word "cunt" permanently branded on his brain, had already made the first move, at one of the beach bars and, as he enthusiastically reported back to me, was convinced that he'd detected a certain predisposition on their part to getting it on with a couple of guys, such as ourselves. He obviously sold me on this because he had the hots for Chrissie, because her pal, Mandy, was a real pain in the ass. What a haughty, condescending little bitch she was. Everything I opened my mouth she put me down, there was a spark alright but it was hate at first sight. During our "getting to know each other" dinner that Michel had set up - a master in protocol and public relations if ever there was one - it was obvious that he and Chrissie were having a ball, touching each other up under the table and giggling away like teenagers. What can I tell you? Frankly this retarded, adolescent version of Casanova was a bit more than I could stomach. "I think she likes you," Michel said, referring to Mandy, when they went off to the loo together, "Chrissie tells me that she gets all shy when she meets someone she likes." I couldn't imagine what she must be like with someone she didn't like... I knew Michel was a regular joker, but he was either taking the piss or he had not been paying attention... The latter I think. There was permafrost in the atmosphere between me and Mandy.

Surprisingly, when they came back from the toilette Mandy's attitude had changed completely; Chrissie gave me a big wink and I realised she must have put in a good word for me, "I'm afraid we didn't get off on the right foot, did we Robert?", she said patronisingly, "But I'd hate to spoil the last few days of my holiday, I'd much rather have a good time while I'm here in Cannes.", she added, meticulously peeling a prawn, slipping it between her lips and looking me in the eye. There it was; the theatre of life, in all its rich and glorious splendour, at least the bitch was apologising, sort of. For my part I stayed aloof, but by the time dessert came round things were looking a bit more relaxed, at least on the surface. I still couldn't stand the cow but she was doing her best to bring me round. How can you deal with a bitch who constantly talks like she's running the show, particularly on home ground. Despite the difficulties, I tried to be as charming as possible, hoping that my chance would come to make sure she got her comeuppance. In short, I played her along, first of all by apologising for any offence I may have caused... In other words humiliating myself, that is pretending that I was actually interested in the inconsequentiality of her concerns and opinions. We spent most of the evening talking about scuba diving, knocking all the other people on the course... Finally Michel came up with one of his better ideas, both of the girls were really up for it, as always without the good grace to consult me first, quite typical really... "So, Robert's got a yacht," said Michel, "why don't we take it out for a sail and do some diving while we're about it?" I could sense that both girls got some kind of sexual excitement from this idea, particularly Chrissie, who stuck her hand down Michel's pants and gave him a passionate kiss, everybody looking on in amazement, particularly the waiter who happened to be bringing us our coffee at that precise moment. So it was all decided then, I gave Michel a withering look, although I was really quite keen on the idea. My masculine pride demanded that I give that bitch Mandy a thorough going over, and where better to do so than out at sea.

The next day, following an early dip, we headed off for the marina. Michel had rented four sets of scuba gear from the diving school, the kind that's suitable for use in warm, shallow waters, this was just in case we actually got round to doing any diving, although this was not the main idea. We planned a trip round Sainte Marguerite Island and then back to port, nothing too complicated, while hoping that we'd get distracted on the way. For my part I brought a picnic basket fully stocked with all the food and drink we could possibly need. The dice were cast. Now I'm not going to bother you with all the details or any of that crap about how we seduced our two English roses, let's just get down to the nitty-gritty.

As I was saying, it wasn't so much the sea breeze that was giving me goose-pimples it was more Mandy's wondrous blow job, her tongue circling my knob-end, I was on the verge of letting fly with everything I'd got. I grabbed her hair and pulled her back, she looked up and smiled. Now it was my turn, I looked her in the eye and thought, "Nobody's going to hear you scream, nobody's going to save your ass! I'm gonna fuck you till your red raw and blistering, then I'm gonna fuck you some more, until you lose consciousness you bitch. I'm gonna fuck your brains out!” She couldn't meet my gaze, I think she'd got the idea; women have a sixth sense about these things. At this point it still hadn't occurred to me that Mandy might get off on being slapped around a bit. I mean, she didn't like to look sexy or attract attention in public, and I'd even have said she was a bit prudish, judging by the way she dressed... The last thing that you expect from a woman like that is to awaken a deep felt sexual yearning. Foe example, at the dinner, the difference between her and Chrissie was summed up by the shoes they wore, Mandy in flat, open-toed sandals and Chrissie in glamorous, spike-heeled, sharp-toed fetish wear. What other conclusion could you reach... Anyway, when she stood up I took a swig of champagne then hold of her by the neck and sank my tongue as far down her throat as it would go. Our tongues met and intertwined, ticklishly, as the champagne foamed up, spilling down her chin and dripping onto her tits. I bent down to lick her tits clean and thrust three fingers deep into her gushing cunt, “I'll show you what diving's about bitch!”, I hissed. She gasped and I smacked her ass hard and repeatedly with my other hand, until I'd got it red and glowing, “Like a bit of slap and tickle do you? Do you? Well check this out sugar!” With amazing docility she lay back on the deck, spreading her legs wide and opening her glistening wet cunt for me, as appetising a sight as I'd ever seen, and I've seen a few I can tell you. I slid my cock slowly into her, feeling her vaginal juices coating the full length of it, “Come on Robert, you can do better than that... Give it a bit of thrust mate... Stop fucking about and let have it! Come on man, shape up! Get your ass in gear!” shouted Michel encouragingly across the deck. He had Chrissie down on all fours, she was giggling hysterically as Michel slammed it into her for all he was worth. Mandy, on the other hand was not so expressive, biting on her hand to stifle her groans of pleasure. We were off at last...

I started to accelerate the frequency and force of my thrusts until I reached the velocity of a steam train, while Mandy generously coated her index finger in saliva and inserted it into her own ass, “You really know how to turn a guy on, don't you?” I said, “And you're not half as shy as you pretend to be, you Bitch!” I spat in her face, she returned my gaze calmly, pulled her finger out, scooped up my spit and slid it back up her asshole. Her face was red from the sun and the energy she was expending and the sweat was pouring off us and turning the deck slippery. A seagull descended and perched on the bowsprit, observing our rutting with a certain curiosity. I pulled my cock out briefly to take the air, wanking it firmly with my right hand to keep it up, and Mandy got down on all fours, pushing her ass up and out towards me. I pushed her head against the deck as she reached back and pulled her cheeks apart, revealing the full glory of her two wet and glistening love holes. Her elasticity was delicious. I spat copiously into her pullulating and well-reamed anal cavity, bent over and pushed my throbbing cock home, “Get ready for a real drilling bitch, what a filthy, contemptible slut you are!” I roared. Grabbing a loose rope from the deck, slipping it over her head and saying “Bight on that baby... You're sure as hell gonna need it!” Mandy made a desperate lunge for it with her teeth, I pulled back and as she bit down I let her have it with all the force I could muster, driving my cock into her with a thrust of my hips that almost sent her sprawling against the bulwarks. I yanked back on the rope, silencing her squeals and did it again, and again. Later on, when I checked the rope, I saw the impressive marks that her teeth had made in it. Meanwhile, Michel and Chrissie had taken a break to observe and comment on the ferocity of Mandy's anal chastisement. At one point I looked up and saw them, stark naked, looking on in awe and consternation, Michel wanking himself off while Chrissie filled their glasses with more champagne.

While Chrissie was encouraging Mandy to resist my onslaught Michel removed the rope from her mouth and shoved his cock in, all the way until she was deepthroating him with stunning aplomb. At one point I thought she was going to gag but she held out stoically as Michel's knob end battered up against her tonsils. Then Chrissie came over, pulled my cock out of Mandy's ass and did the same for me. I was quite grateful for that, as it happened; as the severity of Mandy's anal chastisement was also taking its toll on my cock. Chrissie, insatiable nymph that she was, whore of whores, eased my pain with a blow job that was both balsamic and at the same time increased its size and firmness. Mandy pulled Michel's cock out, “Excuse me,” she said, “but this has got to be the end of me... Can't you see how far out I need to go? As far as I can tell you need to give full vent to your misogyny, so no hold barred, alright?” She looked me in the eye as she laid down her challenge, not without irony, no woman had ever looked at me quite like that before. We both knew exactly what was at stake, the cards were on the table, it was winner take all.

Michel, with an admirable show of the companionship and selflessness that characterised him -and with no complaints from Chrissie who, as it turned out, got her rocks off on a bit of voyeurism- decided that the only way to treat this bitch was with two cocks, “Let's see how you handle this, bitch!” he snarled, “You want us to split you in two like a ripe watermelon, do you?” Mandy smiled to herself and surrendered her body to our grasping hands. I got underneath and slid her onto my cock, while Michel used his own saliva to lubricate his cock before taking her from behind. Mandy could hardly have complained as we rose magnificently to the challenge, going at it hammer and tongs, so hard that I feared she wouldn't be able to withstand the onslaught. She groaned, cried, squealed, begged for mercy, unleashed a ceaseless stream of foul and obscene invective... The sweat poured off her and her shuddering gyrations and contortions drove us on to yet greater and more violent efforts. Chrissie was also having a ball, pulling and jerking on her clit in a corner and using the half-full bottle of champagne as a giant dildo. The filthy slag was revelling in her friends suffering. By the time Michel and I were ready to shoot our loads, Mandy having already come repeatedly, we pulled out to let her have it full in the face, with jet after jet of hot cum gradually obscuring her expression of blissful abandon. What a sight she was...

Apparently Michel had miscalculated the depth, because when we looked round Saint Marguerite was nowhere in sight. We checked out the GPS and found we were a little to the south of the island, we must have spent the last two hours, distracted as we were, drifting with the wind. Shortly afterwards we anchored off another small island, La Tradelière, a bit to the east of Sainte Marguerite. In the distance we spotted an outboard heading towards us, this turned out to be Brenda, one of our diving course instructors. I'd often been tempted, while under the water, to try and get a handful of Brenda's sensational tits, and on more than one occasion I'd found the excuse to brush against her; she was a real bombshell. What really turned her on was going diving all on her own, a ballsy babe alright. When she recognised us she headed over, showing off with some pretty neat turns, before cutting the engine and coming alongside. We'd got dressed by then, although she cottoned on straight away to what we'd been up to, that she'd almost caught us out in full orgy, “You've got something on your cheek there, honey.” She said to Mandy, with a gesture of her finger. That something was obviously a splash of cum, as Brenda well knew. But far from being embarrassed Mandy simply collected it with her finger and pushed it between her lips, saying “Yum-yum”. Brenda winked at her and laughed maliciously.

Brenda said she'd come over to do some diving at a place called Bandits Cave and why didn't we join her, if we felt like it. “It could be fun.” she added. We were all up for that, so we got our scuba gear on and followed Brenda into the water. Our own particular siren led us into the hidden depths of an underwater cave, revealing a truly fascinating underwater seascape. Never in my life had I seen such a rich variety of underwater species all in one place. I kept as close as possible to Brenda, hypnotised by the undulations of that awesome ass, every curve and fold emphasised by her cute little neoprene shorts. The temptations of that ass and the warmth of the water combined to give me a painfully stiff erection, dragging weed! My imagination ran riot. As we went through an opening in the rock Brenda switched on her lamp and the rest of us followed suit, as we'd been taught to do. The narrow and torturous underwater route culminated in a vertical ascent that must have brought us back to sea level. We emerged inside a pitch-black cave. Brenda took a handful of fluorescent light-sticks out of her bag, cracked them and tossed them out in a circle around us. The light revealed a wondrous setting, “Welcome to Bandits Cave.” said Brenda, proprietarily, launching into a potted history of the place. We slipped out of our gear and started to explore the cave, apart from Michel and Chrissie who slipped out of everything and started to explore each other, “They certainly don't waste any time!” I joked, grabbing Brenda from behind. My cock was stiff and painfully constrained by the neoprene suit. She turned and, pulling down the top part of my suit, freed my cock, which sprang out and slapped against my belly with a resounding thwack! Brenda knelt down and started to suck on my balls, hard and cold to start with but she soon had them hot and throbbing.

Mandy came up behind me and started to kiss me desperately, slobbering on my neck, shoulders and ass, sticking her tongue in my asshole, as if possessed by some underwater demon. The echo of the cave multiplied our moans and groans, as if we were fucking in a church or cathedral, “Now I've gotcha!” I said to Brenda, the cha-cha-cha-cha echoing endlessly round the cave and mingling with the gasps and grunts of the others. Far from being jealous Mandy accepted her secondary role in this trio, “Whatever you tell this slut to do, she'll do.” I explained to Brenda, who without a second thought ordered Mandy to lick her cunt out, while she concentrated on sucking my cock, “Look, Robert, Chrissie's all lit up!” shouted an enthusiastic Michel. This seemed to make no sense at all until I looked over and saw Chrissie with one of the light-sticks up her cunt, and sure enough she was lit up by a peach and fluorescent green glow the slut. Michel fell about the place laughing, “It doesn't burn,” shouted Chrissie gleefully, “it just feels warm, like a cock...

Ooooh that feels so good.” Michel was standing there wanking on his cock and waiting, but Chrissie just couldn't get enough of the light-sticks, inserting another up her ass. In the end Michel stuck his cock in the only remaining hole, her mouth, as she squirmed ecstatically on her light-sticks, glowing all over. It must have been the champagne and the sun, or maybe an excess of oxygen, whatever it was she passed out with the job half done. Michel thoughtfully pulled the stick-lights out and walked over with them, pretending to be some kind of Jedi knight. Our passionate grunting echoed back and forth in counter play to Chrissie's snores, in some weird kind of spelunking symphony. My adrenalin pumping I hoisted Brenda in the air and held her upside down so that she could suck my cock while I savoured the delights of her succulent cunt. “Hey, I can do whatever I want with this slut, can't I?” shouted Michel, who had Mandy subjugated on the floor, his foot in her face while she licked and sucked on his toes. I smiled and nodded. Then Michel, with Mandy as his slave, really started to heat up the cave. I couldn't describe the horrible things that Michel did to Mandy but, if you imagine the worst you won't be far wrong.

It was sometime later... I was standing up again, with one hand resting on the enormous cannon, with its grossly phallic connotations, pointing out towards where the yacht was moored, east of La Tradelière Island. We'd decided to take a break on dry land and, as always, when stepping on land after a few hours at sea it appeared to move with the swell... Or maybe it was a result of the pounding of my cock in the holes of my three subaquatic sluts. Mandy, was on her knees again, apparently her favourite position, sucking my cock. I'd severely chastised her giving free rein to my most savage inclinations, although I couldn't match the unspeakable things that Michel had got up to in the cave. She'd become my obedient sexual slave, she seemed to like it and it made me feel better too. Michel was giving Chrissie and Brenda a right going over, reaming each of their asses in turn as they concentrated on eating each other out, all three balanced on top of the tower's enormous cannon. This was a complicated balancing act, the two sluts in a 69, with Brenda on top of Chrissie, and Michel straddling them with the skill and grace of a trapeze artist, first one ass then the other. The heavy cannon wobbled alarmingly and I could see the happy group being crushed by its weigh. “Deepthroat it bitch! Not bad, I see you can do it on land too!” was about the best I could come up to keep Mandy on her toes.

The return trip gave all five of us a chance to get our strength back. Brenda's outboard stayed tied to the stern rail all the way back to Cannes. Night was drawing in by the time we got there and everybody was worn out. But Mandy, little slut that she was, still hadn't had enough and made us an offer, which no sane man could have refused: a night of all-out action, no holds barred at her suite at the Sun Riviera. I realised that, up to then I still hadn't got to fuck Chrissie, something she'd obviously noticed too. Once import we came face to face on the stairs leading down to the cabin. She kissed me effusively, her eyes shining, smiling that smile... I knew just what to expect. “Oh Chrissie, pearl of the seas, my tropical breeze, my northerly storm, my ballsy little English disciplinarian, it's Saint Suckit's day... Now, come over here Mandy and watch as I fuck your little friend...” I thought. I knocked loudly on the door of the suite.

“I started to accelerate the frequency and force of my thrusts until I reached the velocity of a steam train, while Mandy generously coated her index finger in saliva and inserted it into her own ass”

“She turned and, pulling down the top part of my suit, freed my cock, which sprang out and slapped against my belly with a resounding thwack!”
